Guidelines for Authors

Indian Journal of Social Enquiry is a blind peer reviewed quarterly journal published by Maharaja Agrasen College, University of Delhi. It publishes research articles pertaining to evolving areas of research in social sciences and is committed to ethical publishing. The views expressed in the articles are of the authors. The copyright rests with the authors but if they wish to republish articles published by them in Indian Journal of Social Enquiry, due credit must be given.

Please note that Maharaja Agrasen College, University of Delhi does not charge processing/publishing fees.

- Contributors may send their original and unpublished articles in about 3000-5000 words for consideration to editor_ijse@mac.du.ac.in.
- The cover page should contain the title of the paper, name of the author/co-author, designation, affiliation, contact details, mailing address and a brief bio note in about 25-30 words. The next page should contain an abstract of not more than 150 words along with 5-6 keywords.
- The manuscript should be emailed as a Microsoft word document in Times New Roman with font size 12 and 1.5 spacing.
- Please follow British spellings throughout: 'programme', not 'program'; 'labour', not 'labor'; 'behaviour', not 'behavior' etc.
- Formal language associated with research should be used and contributors must be mindful that their language does not reflect any bias nor perpetuate stereotypes.
- There should be consistency in style in tables and figures used.
- End notes should be used for explanations if considered necessary, instead of footnotes. Endnotes should appear at the end of the text.
- APA 7th stylesheet must be followed. The References should contain only those cited in the text of the manuscript. These should be given in an alphabetical order of the first author's surname. Details may be viewed at apa.org
- Integrity must be maintained by ensuring intext citations and corroborating references as well. The Editorial team will not be responsible for any copyright issues.
- The authors using a questionnaire for collection of data for preparing the paper should send a copy of the questionnaire, along with the manuscript.
- The final decision of selecting the articles for publication will rest with the Editorial Team of Indian Journal of Social Enquiry.
- Indian Journal of Social Enquiry requires authors to declare all sources of funding that supported their research. This includes both internal funds (institutional grants) and external funds (government grants, philanthropic organizations). The goal is to ensure transparency and acknowledge the support provided by funders.
- While sending the manuscript, please state that the Guidelines for Authors of Indian Journal of Social Enquiry have been followed.
- Plagiarism and AI usage declaration: The author will give a declaration via email that the article submitted to Indian Journal of Social Enquiry is an original work and has not been previously published elsewhere. No parts of it have been plagiarised and it falls well within the prescribed limits of less than 10% plagiarism. Furthermore, the author/s will declare that AI usage if any has been restricted to language support and if AI has been used for data analysis, the same should be clearly declared.
